

Man in hospital after attack in Livingston

A police investigation is underway after a man was attacked in Livingston this morning.

Emergency services were called to Kenilworth Rise about 09:30 after reports of a disturbance.

The scene was cordoned off to allow for a forensic examination.

A police spokesman confirmed a man was taken to hospital and said inquiries were continuing.