

Speedway – Monarchs off to Glasgow on Sunday

EDINBURGH Monarchs travel to Glasgow Tigers on Sunday (tapes-up 5pm) in the Championship Shield after the disappointment of Friday night's postponement at Armadale.

A Monarchs spokesman said that the long-awaited fixture was called-off well in advance of start time following heavy rain. He added: "We don't have a restaging date at the moment and obviously it's not an easy one with two Friday teams involved."

Monarchs co-promoter Alex Harkess said: "None of the riders wanted to race. Both teams agreed.

"When you walked on it you could understand. The rain had done its damage."

Speedway action from last season