

Teenager in hospital after attack in Gilmerton

A police investigation is underway after a teenager was seriously injured during an attack on Gilmerton Road.

The incident took place about 17.15 last night.

Emergency services cordoned off the area to allow for a forensic examination.

The teenager is being treated at Edinburgh Royal Infirmary.

Police said an investigation is ongoing and appealed for witnesses.