

At the City Art Centre – Victoria Crowe

Over 50 years of painting will go on display at the City Art Centre on 18 May 2019. This is part of Edinburgh Art Festival but it runs all summer until 13 October 2019 and will celebrate the half century of work by one of the UK's foremost painters, Victoria Crowe.

There are paintings from cold winter's days in The Borders or the warmth of the Venetian sunset ranging over the four gallery floors of the City Art Centre.
