

Hockey – Grange star included in Scotland squad

Scotland men give two debutants a chance to impress in a double-header in Poland as the squad prepares for the Hockey Series Finals in Le Touquet in June.

Only six home-based Scots are in the squad and the first game is on Friday and the second on Saturday at the Olympic Preparation Centre in Walcz and Andy Bull and Sam Lloyd will make their first appearances.

Scotland face Ireland, Singapore and Egypt in the pool stages of the Hockey Series Finals and in August they compete at the Belfius EuroHockey Championships with Germany, Ireland and The Netherlands in their qualifying pool.

Squad: Tim Atkins, Nick Parkes (Surbiton), Andy Bull (Pinoke), Callum Duke (Hillhead), Murray Collins, Sam Lloyd (Loughborough University), Andrew McConnell, Rob Harwood, Joe McConnell (Western Wildcats), David Forrester (C.A Montrouge), David Forsyth (Que Vive). Ed Greaves (Loughborough University), Adam Le Page (Tilburg), Lee Morton (Old Georgians), Callum MacKenzie (Cardiff & Met), Aidan McQuade (Grove Menzieshill), Robbie Shepherdson (Grange), Kyle White (Hampstead and Westminster).
