

Ice hockey – Racers aiming to finish season on a high

Murrayfield Racers go for glory in the Scottish Cup Final on Saturday when Tony Hand's men square-up to Dundee Comets in the showpiece game.

Racers are on course for a treble after winning the Scottish National League title and the Stuart Robertson Cup in their inaugural season.

The club warmed-up for the challenge by facing the Scotland under-19 side at Murrayfield last Sunday.

The senior final faces-off at 6.30pm after four other finals starting with the under-12 game at 10am.

That is followed by the under-14 final at noon, the under-16 at 2pm and under-20 final at 4pm.

The venue is the Dundee Ice Arena and adult tickets are £10 and under-16, OAP and disabled tickets £5.
