

Looking for a wedding venue? The Bay Hotel awaits you for your big day

BAY HOTEL CELEBRATES VIBRANT WEDDING AND EVENTS TRADE

With a convenient location not far from the Forth Road Bridge, and offering an attractive coastal setting and spectacular views from the venue, The Bay Hotel at Pettycur, Kinghorn continues to attract capital brides looking for a Kingdom of Fife wedding.

“We are particularly pleased with our wedding trade – it’s going from strength to strength, attracting a lot of custom from all around Scotland,” said Director Tommy Wallace. “As we enter our busy summer wedding season, we wanted to highlight just why more and more bridal parties are coming here – we offer real flexibility and a choice of stunning bridal suites.”

The Bay Hotel’s Heritage Suite can hold up to 250 guests, and can also be divided into smaller rooms if required. Upstairs the Images suite can hold up to 500. There are also a number of additional rooms available for smaller weddings, meetings or conferences.

Pettycur beach and historical harbour provide a dramatic backdrop for wedding photos. The beach can also be the location for stunning firework displays for guests to watch from inside the Function Room or the outside viewing area.

The wide choice of Wedding food reflects the best quality the Kingdom of Fife offers. Suppliers include 'award winning' Hendersons the Butcher in Glenrothes with top quality meats, David Lowrie Fish merchants Ltd in Anstruther supply our fresh fish and all our fresh strawberries and Raspberries are provided by Blacketyside Farm in Leven.

There is also a stylish selection of hot and cold canapés which can be served with welcoming drinks. The Bay Hotel offers a choice of personalised wedding packages which can include a drinks reception, a delicious wedding breakfast, top table flowers, personalised menus, bouquets for the mothers of the bride and groom, table lights and table displays for each table. Overnight accommodation in the honeymoon suite is also included in our Wedding packages, live bands or DJ's for the evening reception are available along with many other extras.

“We have over sixty weddings a year at The Bay Hotel,” said Tommy. “We do find that we pick up a lot custom from those who have previously attended Weddings held at The Bay, they get an excellent opportunity to see what we have to offer and see our great views and the lovely setting, guests can also stay over at a competitive price. We can also advise on the best local suppliers to work with, from florists to cake makers to cars and photography.”
