

Police release CCTV images following Livingston attack

Police have released CCTV images of a man they wish to trace in connection with a serious assault investigation.

At around 4.30am on Saturday 26th January 2019, a 41-year-old man was attacked on Carmondean Centre Road, Livingston. The victim sustained serious injuries and was taken to St John's Hospital for treatment.

As part of this ongoing enquiry, officers are keen to trace the man pictured and would ask anyone who recognises him to come forward. It is believed he may have been within the Grand Central Nightclub in Livingston earlier that evening.

PC Royan from Livingston Police Station said, "The victim sustained painful injuries as a result of this attack, which have left considerable scarring and we are continuing with our investigation to identify the suspect.

"The man in the CCTV footage is of interest to our enquiries and anyone who believes they can help us trace this individual should contact police immediately. In addition, anyone with any further information is also urged to get in touch.”

Those with information can contact Livingston Police Station via 101 and quote reference number 0808 of 26 January. Alternatively, an anonymous report can be made to the charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Contact Details

Call 101 for non-emergencies and general enquiries, in an emergency call 999. If you have information about a crime you can also contact Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.