

Bring your bull terrier to the Bullie Meet Up

If you're a fan of Bull Terriers then don't miss this year's charity 'Bullie Meet Up' being held at The Meadows in August.

Thirty owners have already signed their dogs up to attend the event.

This year they will also have a very special four-legged visitor from Newcastle attending.

Korben, the first Bullie therapy dog, is making the journey with his owners for the yearly charity event to be held at the Pavilion Café at The Meadows on Sunday, 25 August 2019, at 12 noon.

Korben the Bull Terrier therapy dog will be attending this years 'Bullie Meet Up' in Edinburgh. He will travel with his humans from Newcastle to attend the fundraiser on Sunday 25 August 2019.

Organiser Jo Borrett said "We are really looking forward to this year's event and meeting all the Bullies and their humans.

"As well as everyone meeting we will be raising vital cash for 'Adopt a Bull Terrier Rescue' charity.

"We will even have, Twinkle, the Zincer who will be there to meet everyone.

"It should be a really good day and we hope to raise lots of money.

"Everyone is welcome to come along on the day even if it's it just to get some doggy cuddles."

As well as meeting the dogs, there will be a raffle and a home baking stall.

Anyone attending will have the opportunity to join the Scottish Bull Terrier Club.

To find out more and to keep up to date with the event check out their Facebook page here.

All proceeds from the event will be donated to 'Adopt a Bull Terrier Rescue charity'.

Twinkle the zincer will be attending this year's Bullie Meet Up in Edinburgh.