Brunch like a Queen at the Kimpton Charlotte Square Hotel Edinburgh's top hotel to roll out the rainbow carpet on Pride weekend

In celebration of Edinburgh's Pride weekend, the Kimpton Charlotte Square Hotel is hosting its first ever 'Brunch with a Queen' on Saturday, 22 June 2019 at 9.00am.

The brunch will be hosted by the winner of Scotland's Best Drag Queen, the unmissable Reba Martell. The hotel is giving its followers the chance to win a ticket to the brunch for themselves and a friend by entering their Instagram competition.

Guests will join Reba to spill the tea over a delicious brunch with bottomless mimosas and a selection of The Garden's brunch favourites including fresh pastries, avocado toast and eggs benedict.

The infamous drag queen will help guests get into the Pride spirit with a sprinkle of glitter and face art ahead of the Pride march. The Brunch with a Queen event is part of the Kimpton Charlotte Square's ongoing partnership with Pride Edinburgh and the hotel's support of the local LGBT community.

Johan Scheppers, General Manager at Kimpton Charlotte Square said: "Each Kimpton employee is valued and celebrated for their unique perspectives, their contributions and their talents; no matter their gender, race or sexual orientation.

With this in mind, we're proud to be sponsoring Edinburgh Pride and hope to continue this valuable partnership throughout the year with other exciting collaborative events.

"We're looking forward to welcoming our competition winners to the dining room at No.33 for a morning of bottomless mimosas, delicious food and lots of sparkle!"
