

Fishing – McEwan leads as Bass Rock series enters fifth round

Barry McEwan leads the chase for silverware in the Bass Rock Sea Angling League summer series.

The Port Seton-based angler is pictured above in the van with Thomas Slow of Portobello has 24 points going into the fifth round of the ten round event.

Paul Robertson from North Berwick is second six points behind with Craig Ogilvie also from North Berwick third on 16 points.

McEwan won the four round at Dunbar with a cod of 2lb 12oz and the fifth round is back at the same place, this time on a flood tide.
