

New boss at The Hub

At The Hub on Johnston Terrace they have appointed a new Head of Events Sales.

Abigail Delia Clark has almost two decades of experience in sales, events and hospitality and she will take up the lead role to promote the venue.

She has worked with the Sheraton Grand Hotel and Atlas Travel Solutions.

Abigail has a passion for the hospitality sector and specifically food and drink. Talking about her appointment, she said: "I'm incredibly excited to be joining The Hub, which is such an iconic venue. I'm looking forward to working with the team to position the venue as one of the best private event locations in the city for corporate and social events, including conferences, private dinners and weddings."

Commenting on Abigail's appointment, General Manager of The Hub, Fi Morley said: "Abigail is a very welcome addition to our team. Her passion, along with her operational background and event and sales experience, will help develop one of the finest hospitality venues in Edinburgh."

The Hub at the top of the Royal Mile is one of Edinburgh's most dramatic venues and is home to the Edinburgh International Festival. The Grade A Listed building integrates contemporary design and facilities within classical Victorian architecture.

It has a richly decorated Main Hall, elegant Dunard Library and vibrant Cafe Hub, which are ideal for gala dinners, weddings, ceilidhs, exhibitions and special events that demand a flexible space and creative edge.
