

Djourn and Godhino Leave Hearts

Hearts midfielder Arnaud Djourn has left Tynecastle to join Saudi

Arabian side Al-Raed. The Cameroonian internationalist made 130 appearances in maroon since he arrived in Gorgie in 2015.

Canadian defender Marcus Godhino has also departed Tynecastle, signing for German third-tier side Zwickau.

Meanwhile, Hearts and Inverness Caledonian Thistle drew 1-1 at Tynecastle tonight in a benefit match for midfielder Angus Beith. The 23-year-old played for both clubs before being forced to give up the game due to injury. Anthony MacDonald scored Hearts goal in the first half.
