

Emerson Hyndman joins MLS champions Atlanta United on loan

Former Hibs' midfielder Emerson Hyndman has joined MLS champions Atlanta United on loan from parent club Bournemouth.

The US international featured 17-times for Hibs, scoring his only goal in a 6-0 victory over Hamilton last October.

The 23-year-old has joined until the end of December and Atlanta have an option to buy him when the deal ends.

Hyndman has made seven first-team appearances for Bournemouth since joining them from Fulham in 2016.
