

Hibs goalkeeper Kevin Dabrowski agrees season-long loan move to Cowdenbeath.

Hibs' goalkeeper Kevin Dabrowski has agreed a season-long loan move to Cowdenbeath.

The 21-year-old will pick up valuable first-team experience while continuing to train day in, day out with senior goalkeepers Chris Maxwell and Ofir Marciano at the Hibernian Training Centre.

He told Hibs Media: "I'm excited to get started at Cowdenbeath and I think it's a good move for all parties.

"Last season was a good one for me, to be in and around the first-team set-up and learning from the good professionals we have in the dressing room.

"It's made me even hungrier to improve and the next step is obviously to play regular first-team football.

“So I’ll do my best to get in the team at Cowdenbeath and take it from there.

“It’s good that I’ll be able to keep training at HTC as well because I enjoy working with Alan Combe and the other goalkeepers.
