

Investigation ongoing after man dies during disturbance in Lochend

An investigation is ongoing after the death of a man during an alleged fight outside Edinburgh City FC's social club, formerly known as the Loch Inn, at 12.15am this morning.

A 49-year-old man was injured and later died in hospital following the incident on Lochend Road South.

The area has been cordoned off while forensic teams carry out investigations.

A man has been arrested in connection with the incident.

Chief inspector Graham Grant said: "Our sympathies are with the family of the man who died as a result of this incident and we are working to establish the full circumstances of what happened.

“An arrest has been made, but we remain keen to speak with anyone who was in the area of Lochend Road South, at its junction with □Sleigh Drive, during Saturday evening or into the early hours of Sunday morning and may have witnessed the disturbance.

“Likewise anyone with any other relevant information should also contact police immediately.”
