

Spend an evening with Hibs' Legend Pat Stanton at the Usher Hall

Scottish football fans can spend an evening with Hibs' legend Pat Stanton and guests at the Usher Hall on Saturday 7th September.

Pat enjoyed a glorious career with his beloved Hibs, leading them to a memorable League Cup triumph over Celtic in 1972, the club's first national cup win at Hampden Park for 70-years.

He also won two Drybrough Cups and a Summer Cup as well as playing in numerous European games including famous victories over Naples and Sporting Lisbon.

He also captained the club on that never to be forgotten new-year's-day massacre of city rivals Hearts in 1973.

Pat will be joined on stage by many former Hibs Players whom he played with and managed also special guest appearances that have touched Pat's long illustrious career such as Steve Archibald and Gordon Strachan.

Sir Alex Ferguson will also be present to pay tribute to his former assistant who helped him win the league title for Aberdeen at Easter Road.

A great night of nostalgia and surprise appearances are in store on a one off evening not to be missed if you are

Scottish football fan.

This event is in support of Children with Cancer and Leukaemia Advice and Support for Parents (CCLASP) registered charity no.

SC047235 and also Muirfield Riding Therapy Registered charity no. SC028674*