

Allanwater Homes sponsor Whitburn Juniors

Allanwater Homes is once again sponsoring local football club, Whitburn Juniors.

The housebuilder, which has its very popular Heartlands development in Whitburn, has recently provided all players at the Club, which attracts players in their late teens to early twenties, with new tracksuits. It has also had advertising boards in place around the Juniors pitch at Central Park, Whitburn, for the past two years.

Robert Cook from the club said: "We are very grateful to Allanwater Homes for their continuing support of our club. The new kit is fantastic, and we appreciate the advertising support too.”

“All sponsorship, in whatever form, enables a club like us to grow and thrive. We are looking forward to a new season. Our thanks once again go to Allanwater Homes,” he added.

Heartlands, which represented Allanwater Homes first foray into the West Lothian marketplace, and is conveniently located just off the M8 motorway, has a wide range of three to five bedroom, energy efficient, homes currently available. Prices are from just £157,995 for the three bedroom terraced Kintail villa.

The Arrochar three bedroom semi-detached villa is priced at £175,995, whilst four bedroom detached villas include the Lomond and the Cairngorm, both superbly appointed designs with the features today’s buyer want to see, as well as an excellent as standard specification.

Sharron McCarthy, Sales and Marketing Manager for Allanwater Homes said : “We are so pleased to be building here in Whitburn, bringing our Allanwater Homes brand to his new part of Scotland. As such, we seek out local sponsorships which will make a difference, and we are delighted that Whitburn Juniors are benefitting from our support.”
