

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2019 – From Shanghai with Love

As part of the Fringe "From Shanghai with Love" consists of a runway show and an exhibition showcasing the contemporary and futuristic Shanghai-style Qipao.

The event takes place on 23 24 August 2019 bringing silk garments from China's famous Silk Road combined with cutting-edge modern and futuristic fashion technology to the stunning Playfair Library.

This is the third time the extremely popular Qipao fashion show and exhibition return to Edinburgh.

Top young Chinese fashion designers will explore the intersection of femininity and technology. Using the latest high-tech techniques, the collection includes amazing luminous, shape-changing and 3D printing designs.

'From Shanghai with Love' returns to Edinburgh Fringe for the third time. This extremely popular fashion show and exhibition brings garments from China's famous Silk Road and combines them with cutting-edge fashion technology.

Our exhibition features Shanghai-style fashion from the Republican period and beyond. Our runway showcases contemporary and futuristic Qipao designs using the latest high-tech materials and techniques: blending tradition with modernity.

'From Shanghai with Love' takes place in the University of Edinburgh's Playfair Library. Widely regarded as one of Scotland's finest public rooms, it makes a superb setting for this very special Fringe event.
