

Man charged with Montgomery Street attack on teenager

A man has been charged following a serious assault in the Leith Walk area of the city earlier this year.

On Thursday 25th April, a 16-year-old male sustained facial injuries after being attacked in Montgomery Street.

As a result of inquiries conducted by Gayfield CID, a 31-year-old man was arrested on Monday 19th August and will appear in court at a later date in connection with this incident.
