

Police release CCTV images following West Richmond Street attack

Police have released CCTV images of a man they wish to trace in connection with an assault which took place in West Richmond Street around 8.10pm on Thursday 20th June, when a 47-year-old man was struck on the head.

Detectives are keen to speak to a man described as white, in his thirties, of medium build, with short dark hair and dark stubble.

He is pictured wearing a blue t-shirt with white detail, navy workman trousers, with white fluorescent bands at the bottom of each leg and black work boots.

“The victim attended hospital, where he was found to have sustained a serious injury, and an investigation has been ongoing since this time.

“We’re keen to trace the man in the images as part of our enquiries and would urge anyone who may recognise him, or the man himself if he sees this appeal, to contact us.”

Those with information can call Police Scotland via 101, quoting incident number 3864 of 20th June 2019, or report this anonymously to the charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.
