

UN International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples

Indigenous Contemporary Scene performers at the Edinburgh International Festival, Edinburgh Fringe and Edinburgh Book Festival mark UN International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples which is celebrated on 9 August 2019.

PHOTO Ian Georgeson

They are pictured here on Calton Hill with the Kanata Indigenous Flag of Canada designed by Greg Hill

A month long programme of live-arts by Indigenous artists and curators from Canada announced Indigenous Contemporary Scene (ICS), produced by Onishka Productions, is bringing a group of Indigenous artists from across Canada to Edinburgh this August to present theatre, dance, music and literature across three of this city's famous festivals.

PHOTO Ian Georgeson