

About to get messy at Clambers

Things are about to get messy at Clambers soft play as they launch Messy Play on Thursday, 12 September 2019. And the best thing is, for once, it will be Edinburgh Leisure staff clearing up after the children, rather than you.

Messy Play is an opportunity for children to get involved in sensory activities that lets them get messy. Children will be given the chance to play with things they can't normally get their hands on.

There will be a different activity or theme each week such as hand and feet painting, crazy clay and slime making. The kids will be given an apron to keep their clothes clean.

The activity takes place every Thursday at Clambers soft play at the Royal Commonwealth Pool from 13:30-14:00hrs. The product is free for members and any non-members, who pay for a soft play session at that time, will have access to the messy play room.

Edinburgh Leisure's soft play frames are suitable for children up to ten years old and there are frames for babies, toddlers and juniors. Each venue has a café where healthy snacks and tasty treats can be enjoyed.
