

Growing concern for missing man Stanislaw Zajac

Concern is growing for the welfare of missing man Stanislaw Zajac was last seen on Sailmaker Road at around 9pm on Saturday.

The 51-year-old has not been in contact with friends or family since and police are now asking anyone with information on Mr Zajac's whereabouts to contact them as soon as possible.

He is described as white, 5ft 9ins tall, with a medium/athletic build and short curly brown hair.

He wears glasses and usually has them hanging around his neck and police say he may have looked to travel to the North Berwick area.

Inspector Grant McCulloch from Craigmillar Police Station said: "Stanislaw has been missing for a number of days now and this is completely out of character for him. As such, his family are understandably worried.

“We have a number of police resources enlisted in the search for Stanislaw and I am now looking for assistance from the public.

“If you believe you may have seen him since Saturday evening, or have been in contact with him, then please contact us immediately.

“I’d also urge Stanislaw himself to get in touch with us to confirm he is safe.”

Those with information can contact Police Scotland on 101.
