

Ice Hockey – Fired-up Fife burn Coventry Blaze

Elite League: Coventry Blaze 1, Fife Flyers 4; Dundee Stars 1, Nottingham Panthers 5. Challenge Cup: Belfast Giants 6, Glasgow Clan 1

Danick Gauthier claimed a double as fired-up Fife Flyers, coached by Todd Dutiaume (pictured) burned Coventry Blaze 4-1 in the Midlands.

The Scots other goals came from Chase Schaber and Paul Crowder and Fife old boy Evan Bloodoff, who moved south in the summer, replied for the home side.

Dundee Stars skidded to their third straight defeat when they were hammered 5-1 on Tayside by Nottingham Panthers.

Stars were 3-0 down after 29 minutes but Egils Kalns replied before Panthers claimed a late double.

In Belfast, Glasgow Clan were hit for six in the Challenge Cup by Belfast Giants with Scott Pitt claiming their consolation from close-range on the powerplay.
