

Ice hockey – Stars in seventh heaven but Flyers skid to defeat

James Jamieson and Carol Finucci both netted but Fife Flyers were edged 4-2 by German touring side EV Landshut at Kirkcaldy.

The home combine led 1-0 after the first period and they held that advantage in the second stanza but the roof fell in during the final session.

Dundee Stars completed a Challenge Cup double over Scottish rivals Glasgow Clan.

In 120 minutes of ice hockey the Tayside team have fired 13 goals with only 5 in reply raising alarm bells at Braehead and putting real pressure on Clan's new 34-year-old coach Zack Fitzgerald.

But Stars fans are in seventh-heaven after back-to-back wins. Saturday's shock 6-3 victory in Glasgow was followed by a 7-2 triumph in Dundee.

It took Stars only 42 seconds to open their account with Anthony Beauregard netting.

Less than three minutes later they were 2-0 ahead with Elgin Pearce scoring on the power play and it was 3-0 when Duncan Spiers converted after nine minutes.

Scott Pitt Replied for crestfallen Clan two minutes later but that did not stop rampant Dundee.

Reilly O'Connor scored No 4 after 26 minutes and Kevin Dufour increased Fitzgerald's agony with a fifth on the power play after 34 minutes.

And only 35 seconds after that it was 6-1 when Pearce claimed his second also on the power play.

Nolan LaPorte pulled one back for Clan on the power play with 39 seconds left of the second period but Beauregard netted his second after 49 minutes to complete the socreline.
