

Worbey & Farrell at the Usher Hall this November

WORBEY & FARRELL – MASQUERADE AT THE USHER HALL 28 NOVEMBER 2019

The accredited Steinway ensemble have performed in over 150 countries and have had millions of hits on YouTube. They are regulars on BBC Radio 3 and ITV's This morning with their sensational piano playing and barnstorming blend of humour.

Accolades for their work ranges from a two month sell-out season in Vienna, one of the few Edinburgh festival acts to have five star reviews in two consecutive years from The Scotsman and more recently successful tours in South Korea and South Africa.

After their debut concert at the Usher Hall in 2017, Worbey and Farrell return for a third time with a brand new fun show that will feature their own astonishing arrangements of the world's greatest music.

Expect family favourites such as Prokofiev's Peter and the Wolf with their own unique narration, Bach's magnificent Toccata and Fugue in D minor and an exclusive insight into the secret world of the composer.

Venue: Usher Hall, Lothian Road, Edinburgh

Date: 28 November 2019

Times: 7.30pm

Prices: £17/21/27 (no concessions)

Box Office: 0131 228 1155

www.usherhall.co.uk

