

A spot for lunch with your V&A visit

Heading up to Dundee to combine seeing the new V&A with some festive shopping and Christmas lunch? Looking for a great port of call?

The Italian Grill, centrally located in City Square, has a fantastic festive menu on offer, which combines warming and rustic Italian flavours, with celebratory festive fare.

The restaurant and bar, known for its elegant presentation of authentic Italian dishes, has selected favourites such as Tuscan Bean Soup, Chicken and Parma Ham Sausage, and Gamberoni Prawns for starter, whilst main courses have both the traditional, with turkey & herb stuffing Involtini, or something different, such as Featherblade of Beef, Pumpkin Ravioli, Roast Cauliflower, or Grilled Plaice.

Finish with ice cream, cheese, sorbet, or one of two absolute classics of the Italian festive season – Panettone Bread and Butter Pudding, or Limoncello Panacotta. Three courses for £25, with wine for three courses, £32.50.
