It also has a good sized lounge, separate family room, dining room, utility room, and a spacious kitchen with integrated appliances. Also included in this stand out country home is a study, together with a luxury family bathroom.

A superb as standard specification features in this property, offering the buyer excellent value for money. This includes an Ashley Ann luxury fitted kitchen, with clients choosing their own tiling and flooring to suit. A wood burning stove in the lounge is also standard, as are fully fitted wardrobes in all the bedrooms, and underfloor heating in the bathroom and kitchen areas.

Many luxury extras are available to spec into the property, such as a wine cooler, luxury coffee machine, hot water tap, and American style Fridge Freezer. All skirtings, facings and doors are oak, with a choice of oak or solid white timber doors, plus a choice of handles.

Externally the property is equally breath taking with a slate roof, arched porch entrance, and Juliet Balcony.

Subject to build schedule, the buyer can make changes to the layout, and incorporate many extras to the overall design of the home.

Situated just off the M90, but with a real country feel, the area boasts many amenities, good schooling, and is ideally placed for exploring the entire Loch Leven area.
