

Love Golf? Keep in the swing this winter

Wrap up warm, fill up your thermos and grab your clubs. Winter golf at the largest club in town returns on 1st October. And with the unpredictable Scottish weather, you won't have to rely on one course.

For die-hard golf fans, who want to keep in the swing of it, even during the winter months, buying Edinburgh Leisure's 'winter golf membership' can be bought online for just £22 per month. With minimal use of winter greens and no mats, it's the ideal opportunity to keep your golf on par until the summer returns.

The winter pass is valid from 1 October 2019 – 31 March 2020 and allows access to Edinburgh Leisure's six golf courses.

Edinburgh Leisure's 18-hole courses include Braid Hills, Carrick Knowe, Craigentinny, and Silverknowes.

The Wee Braids which is a 9-hole course, can be played up until 30 November 2019 and again in March 2020 but is closed from December 2019 to February 2020.

Some Wee Braids holes are incorporated into the main Braid Hills Course during this time. There is also a 9-hole course at Portobello.

Payable monthly by direct debit until March 2020, different membership options are available including access to all the courses, seven days a week; and a five-day membership with access to all courses Monday to Friday. The membership also gives 20% off other Edinburgh Leisure activities including the gym, swimming, racquet sports and climbing, at the various Edinburgh Leisure venues across the city.

The Golf Membership is available to buy at any Edinburgh Leisure site and online – www.edinburghleisure.co.uk/memberships/golf
