

Man injured after being struck by bus

A male pedestrian has been knocked down by a bus on Mayfield Gardens at around 7.40am this morning.

Police were alerted to the incident by the Scottish Ambulance Service.

A Police Scotland spokesman said: "Police received a report by the ambulance service at 7.40am on Wednesday about a collision between a man and a bus – a male pedestrian.

"Emergency services are at the scene."