Passengers who already booked their travel journey are invited to extend their holiday with a stopover in Doha and receive match tickets to experience world-class football and the cultural delights of Qatar.

Qatar Airways has launched a global TV campaign to support this extraordinary travel offer entitled 'Make Qatar Your Goal'.

Qatar Airways Group Chief Executive, His Excellency Mr Akbar Al Baker, said: "We are delighted to offer fans these amazing deals to visit Qatar and be part of the FIFA Club World Cup Qatar 2019™. We are committed to inspiring our passengers to come and discover what Qatar has to offer, on and off the football pitch.

“As an airline, we firmly believe in the power of sport to unite people, and we look forward to bringing thousands of passionate fans together in Qatar to enjoy world-class football alongside five-star hospitality and organisation. The FIFA Club World Cup Qatar 2019™ will serve as an exciting preview to the biggest event in world football, the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022™, in just over three years’ time.”

Featuring the six continental club champions from around the world along with Qatar Stars League champions Al Sadd Club, the FIFA Club World Cup Qatar 2019™ action will start on 11 December, culminating in the final on 21 December. Reigning European Champions Liverpool FC open their campaign on 18 December, marking the inauguration of Education City Stadium, the latest FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022™ stadium to be completed over three years ahead of the world cup finals.
