

What's on – Worbey & Farrell – Masquerade

WORBEY & FARRELL MASQUERADE AT THE USHER HALL ON 28 NOVEMBER 2019

The accredited Steinway ensemble have performed in over 150 countries and have had millions of hits on YouTube. They are regulars on BBC Radio 3 and ITV's This morning with their utterly sensational piano playing and barnstorming blend of humour.

Their work is diverse. From a two month sell-out season in Vienna, they are also one of the very few Edinburgh Festival Fringe acts to have achieved five star reviews in two consecutive years in The Scotsman and more recently tours in South Korea and South Africa.

After their debut concert at the Usher Hall in 2017, Worbey & Farrell return for a third time with a brand new fun show that will feature their own astonishing arrangements of the world's greatest music. Expect family favourites such as Prokofiev's Peter and the Wolf with their own unique narration, Bach's magnificent Toccata and Fugue in D minor and an exclusive insight into the secret world of the composer.

Booking details

Venue: Usher Hall, Lothian Road, Edinburgh
Date: 28 November 2019
Times: 7.30pm
Prices: £17/21/27 (no concessions)
Box Office: 0131 228 1155

