

Adam Bogdan joins Hibs on short-term deal

Hungarian international goalkeeper Adam Bogdan has re-joined Hibs subject to international clearance.

The 32-year-old goalkeeper has signed a short-term deal that will initially run until the start of the January transfer window.

Bogdan enjoyed a successful loan spell with Hibs last season from Liverpool, before his contract at Anfield expired in the summer.

He has been assigned the number 27 shirt.

Bogdan told Hibernian Media: "I'm really happy to be back at a club that means a lot to me.

"My family and I really enjoyed our time here last season and when the opportunity arose to sign it didn't take me long to think it over.

"I've been training on my own and with a few clubs, waiting for the right opportunity.

"It's been good to see a few old faces and meet some new ones. Now I just want to work hard and hopefully give the Head Coach something to think about."
