

‘Art to suit the pocket of everybody’

Edinburgh Art Fair is 15 years old and the event is claimed to be Britain’s most prestigious art fair outside London.

There are 65 exhibiting galleries from the UK and abroad plus more than 500 artists from around the globe.

Visitors can discover paintings, original prints, ceramics, sculpture, glassware and photography from artists working in contemporary art through to established Royal Academicians.

The hub is the Edinburgh Corn Exchange and a spokesman said: “We believe art is for everybody, not just an elite few.

“We curate the fair so there is original artwork priced from as little as £100 all the way up to £50,000 so there is something for the wallet of everyone.”

Partners and supporters include bto solicitors, Edel, ESPC Premier Living and Tobormory Distillery and the Corn Exchange is on New Market Road, Edinburgh EH14 1RJ. The event runs until November 24.
