

Christmas lights switched on at Craigmillar

Choirs from Castleview Primary and The Venchie young people's project performed at a community event held in Craigmillar last night.

Organised by Castle Rock Edinvar Housing Association, there was a large turnout from local people who enjoyed songs from the children's choirs, a visit from Santa, festive stalls and hot food provided by local charity Bridgend Farmhouse Café.

Everyone had a chance to contribute their ideas to the ongoing community consultation to decide the future of vacant commercial space at Hay Avenue which belongs to the housing association and may become a new community hub for the area.

See the proposal below.
