

Christmas Makers' Market 2019

At St Margaret House on London Road there will be a big event next month.

The building has become a hub for all kinds of arts and crafters and The Christmas Makers' Market is on Saturday 7 December 2019. Then you can see the work of some of the hundreds of artists and crafters who work there.

Each artist can only have a few of their works on display but it will give you an opportunity to pick up some really individual Christmas gifts.

The building known as Edinburgh Palette is now 100% occupied with a waiting list for space.
