

Josh Taylor to parade world title belts at Easter Road

World champion boxer Josh Taylor will be Hibs' special guest for the Ladbrokes Premiership head to head with Kilmarnock on Saturday 30 November at Easter Road.

The popular Hibs' supporter is fresh from becoming the unified world champion of the super-lightweight division after getting the better of Regis Prograis.

The Tartan Tornado lit up the O2 Arena in London and now fans will get their chance to congratulate him in person with Josh set to parade his belts at half-time on the pitch.

He will also be joining hospitality guests who will be able to dine with the champ and hear his own account of a remarkable career to date.

Hibs have three hospitality packages on offer with details available on the club's website.
