

Santa is upping his game at Edinburgh Leisure

In preparation for burning off all those mince pies Santa Claus will be consuming this Christmas, he is coming to Edinburgh Leisure's soft plays. These sessions are suitable for 0-10 year olds to enjoy some of the great fitness facilities available at the venues which will host his Christmas parties during the month of December.

Santa has been seen on the climbing wall at Edinburgh International Climbing Arena (EICA) Ratho, perfect for practising descending all those chimneys. He's also been making a splash at The Royal Commonwealth Pool.

Children visiting Santa at Tumbles at Portobello, EICA: Ratho and The Royal Commonwealth Pool will also have the chance to be active. From rocking around the Christmas tree to burning off all that Christmas excitement across the city's soft play venues, there's plenty to keep kids active this festive season.
