

Sushi Daily opening soon at The Jewel Asda

Asda customers in Edinburgh will be able to buy freshly handmade sushi thanks to Sushi Daily, which is due to open in the store on Monday 25 November 2019 with free tastings on offer all day.

The counter will be the franchise's first in an Asda store in the city, but its third in total with Waitrose Comely Bank and Waitrose Morningside which already have sushi counters.

Sushi Daily offers an open kitchen experience where customers can see their food being prepared from high-quality natural ingredients, including whole Scottish salmon. An exclusive menu has been designed especially for Asda and customers can look out for 'Asda Exclusive' stickers on the products.

Some examples include : Teriyaki Chicken Classic Roll starts at just £2.00, the Tokyo Menu with cooked and raw fish sushi at £5.90 and the twenty-piece Hachi Menu with four types of sushi at £10.90.

Daniel Coole, Managing Director of Sushi Daily said : "We offer a fresh, handmade alternative to unhealthy lunches, snacks and convenience meals, and there really is something for everyone.

"Customers can see their sushi being prepared while they shop and even order platters for family meals or special occasions. We offer convenience without the guilt – picking up fresh high-quality sushi from one of our counters is just as easy as grabbing a processed sandwich that's full of preservatives.

"Our salmon is sourced locally so we're thrilled to be opening another counter in Scotland and we hope to continue expanding in the area.”
