

The House of Jack Christmas Show 2019 (I)

They went, they saw, they had to have thought it was brilliant!

Not being a theatre, dance or any other kind of critic, it was considered that the best way to present the show was a comprehensive gallery, so that's what's here.

The images are from the full dress and technical rehearsals earlier on today (Sunday) at the Churchill Theatre. But, that took nothing away from the thoroughly professional performance. 'Street and Urban Dance show' said the preview and it was all of that. Loads of gold stars....
