

The House of Jack Christmas Show 2019

Next weekend the Churchill Theatre will welcome dance teacher and choreographer, Ashley Jack's 'House of Jack', who will be performing their 2019 Christmas Show in front of , what is heading towards, a full house.

This street and urban dance show is jam-packed with dynamic performances from students of all of House of Jack's kids' classes and youth companies.

During the term starting from 19th August, all kids classes have been working towards performing in this year's Christmas Show

Join us for this end of year showcase of their talents, from fun, energetic pieces to powerful hip hop theatre, and see what House of Jack is all about!

Church Hill Theatre, 24th November 2019, 6.30 pm.

House of Jack:

House of Jack was founded in 2017 by award-winning hip hop dancer, choreographer and teacher Ashley Jack, focusing on street dance styles and welcoming to all ages and level of ability.

House of Jack provides classes for adults and kids at a dedicated studio in Leith, as well as workshops, youth company training, performances and events.

Kids classes are open to those with any level of experience, from Primary 1 up, while House of Jack's two youth dance companies, the Mini Jackers and Jackin' the Box, frequently perform at prominent events and theatre nights around Edinburgh and Scotland.

In recognition of her contribution to the dance scene, Ashley recently won Creative Edinburgh's 2018 Independent Award, and was named on The List's Hot 100 of 2019.

Tickets are SOLD OUT!

The show is now 'sold out', so if you are looking for tickets, please email ashleyjackdance@gmail.com and they will add you to the waiting list in case of any returns!