

Final few Allanwater homes available with some extras

INCENTIVES AVAILABLE ON FINAL FEW THREE AND FOUR BEDROOM HOMES AT RUMBLINGWELL

Allanwater Homes popular Rumblingwell development, just ten minutes from the centre of Dunfermline, has incentives available on its final three and four bedroom homes.

On offer is the three bedroom terraced, and semi-detached Kintail villa, ideal for first time buyers, couples, and young families, and priced from just £162,995 for the terraced design, and from £167,995 for the semi detached version.

Those in the market for a four bedroom property can opt for the final Cuillin, priced at £239,995 and complete with a luxury fitted kitchen with integrated appliances. This property also includes a single garage and has a large south facing garden with no properties planned to be built behind it to obscure the views it enjoys. There is also easy access from this property to a local cycle path.

All Allanwater Homes properties are constructed with energy efficient materials to give reduced running costs to the buyer. Inside and out, the properties are built with care and attention to detail. The Allanwater Homes "as standard" specification is excellent, with a quality luxury fitted kitchen with in built appliances, superb bathroom, en-suite, and sanitaryware, and flooring choice. Double glazing and central heating is also included, plus a full 10 year Premier Guarantee.

Sales Advisor Pamela Dickson from Allanwater Homes said :

“This Rumblingwell development is fulfilling an important demand for new housing in this area. We are delighted to have sold so well and to only have a few properties left for sale. They are all well priced and well designed properties, sure to appeal to buyers everywhere.

“The area has many schools and amenities. Please ask us about any incentives we have on specific plots, as we will be delighted to assist.”

Prospective buyers can check out the current Allanwater Home specification by visiting the acclaimed Grampian showhome at The Views at Saline, another successful Allanwater Homes development which is now selling from its final phase.
