

Glenn Middleton returns to Rangers after loan spell cut short

Teenage winger Glenn Middleton has returned to Rangers after his loan with Hibs was cut short.

He was due to stay at Easter Road for the remainder of the season however he hasn't featured since the departure of Paul Heckingbottom.

He made just eight appearances for the club with his last outing on 30 October when he played 45 minutes of a 2-2 draw with Livingston.

A Scotland youth international, Middleton signed an 18-month deal with Rangers in January 2018, arriving from Norwich City.
