

Special Hogmanay NightBuses planned

MORE HOGMANAY NIGHTBUSES FOR EDINBURGH AND THE LOTHIAN

Lothian have today announced details of their NightBus services for Hogmanay. Special services will be running from midnight until 0400 on the morning of 1st January 2020 offering you safe travel home after the New Year celebrations in the city centre.

EastCoastbuses and Lothiancountry will also operate special services between Edinburgh and East Lothian and West Lothian after the bells.

An exclusive Hogmanay Ticket will be introduced for these special services.

This ticket will offer unlimited travel on buses from 6.00pm on 31st December and all HogmanayBuses after midnight.

The Hogmanay Ticket on Lothian services will be priced at £5 and on EastCoastbuses and Lothiancountry either £5 or £10 depending on journey length. Hogmanay Tickets can be purchased from the driver (cash or contactless) or in advance on m-tickets. Ridacards will be accepted for travel on HogmanayBuses.

Richard Hall, Managing Director for Lothian said: "We are delighted to be providing safe and reliable travel for our customers again on Hogmanay. It is a particularly busy time in the city and our services will offer customers piece of mind as they aim to get home after the celebrations. As always we would take this opportunity to remind customers to plan their travel in advance using our website or app.

“Following customer feedback last year, I am also happy to announce that we will accept Ridacards on these special services. On behalf of everyone at Lothian, I wish all our colleagues and customers a great festive season.”

Transport and Environment Convener Councillor Lesley Macinnes said: “This is a particularly exciting and festive time of year and I’m sure lots of people are looking forward to celebrating Hogmanay in the magical setting of Edinburgh’s historic city centre. Just as important as the festivities is making sure everyone gets home safely and easily at the end of the night so it’s good news that Lothian are providing special bus services throughout the night.”
