

Still time to have your Christmas at Mains of Taymouth

FESTIVE BREAKS STILL AVAILABLE AT MAINS OF TAYMOUTH

Mains of Taymouth luxury 5 star Country Estate and Golf Course at Kenmore has announced limited availability for the Christmas period, with a minimum three night stay priced from £558 in one of the estate's superb 5 star luxury properties. The New Year period is also available from 28th December from £900 for a minimum five night stay in a luxury Gallops or Maxwell property.

“We are offering guests the chance to spend Christmas or New Year here in beautiful Highland Perthshire,” said Mains of Taymouth General Manager, Pauline McLaren, “Escape the hubbub of the city, relaxing and unwinding in one of our well equipped holiday cottages which list saunas, hot tubs, four poster beds, luxurious kitchens, and open plan living spaces amongst their many charms.”

“We are ideal for either a romantic bolthole for couples, or for a multi generational family break, with some of our holiday properties sleeping up to twelve people,” she said. “The family dog can come too as several properties are pet friendly.”

Properties to choose from include Granary Court, Stables Cottage, and two large family Bruadair properties. All properties at Mains of Taymouth are highly individual, with the original courtyard cottages oozing character charm.

Mains of Taymouth offers a wealth of on site attractions, including a nine hole golf course, equestrian centre, gift shop/deli, and the family friendly Courtyard Restaurant. Picturesque Kenmore is easily accessible from the Central Belt in an hour and a half.

Attractions worth a visit in the area include Dewars Distillery, The Highland Chocolatier at Grandtully, Castle Menzies, and Highland Safaris in Aberfeldy.
