

Witness appeal following break-in at Dry Cleaners

Police are appealing for information following a break-in at a business in Bathgate.

Between Saturday, 7 December and Monday 9 December entry was forced to the Bee Cleaner dry-cleaners on Livery Street and a sum of cash, worth a low three figure sum, was stolen from within.

Inquiries into the incident are continuing and officers are now appealing for information.

Detective Constable Samantha Plastow, of Livingston CID, said "I am appealing to anyone who was in the area over the weekend who may have saw anything suspicious.

"If they have any information that may assist with this enquiry, information can be passed to officers via 101 quoting incident 0809 of 9 December, or can be reported anonymously to Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.”
