

An Evening of Scottish Fiddle Music at The Queen's Hall

The Edinburgh Highland Reel & Strathspey Society (EHRSS) is pleased to return to the Queen's Hall on Saturday 21 March 2020 to present another varied programme of traditional Scottish fiddle music.

The evening will feature the orchestra, under the baton of well-known Scottish fiddle-player Yla Steven BEM, playing a selection of marches, strathspeys, reels, jigs and hauntingly beautiful slow airs.

In addition, EHRSS welcomes back the renowned Scottish tenor Dennis Haggerty who has delighted audiences the length and breadth of the country with his glorious singing of Scottish songs.

Our piper, Martin Duncan, will start the evening off in the traditional manner with his expert skill on the bagpipes. This evening we also welcome a return visit from the choir of Fox Covert Primary School.

The concert starts at 7:30 PM

Tickets [Adults £15 : Concessions £13 : Children £8] are available from The Queen's Hall (Tel: 0131 668 2019) on online here
