

Celebrate PAentine's Day at The Edinburgh Grand

Boyfriends and girlfriends come and go, but best friends stay together forever!

The Edinburgh Grand is throwing an alternative Valentine's Day party next month on 13 February 2020 giving everyone the chance to enjoy a night out on the town with their besties.

The Grand's PAentine's Party takes place in the elegant surroundings of The Register Club with cocktails, live music and the best cabaret acts in town providing the ideal excuse to get together with friends.

Now an official part of the calendar PAentine's Day ensures no one forgets about their pals at a time of year when love is being celebrated.

The event is a first for The Edinburgh Grand and a first for Edinburgh!

With tickets priced at £35 for two or £17.50 individually, guests can also be primped and preened in The Director's Suite which is throwing open its doors to become the ultimate walk in wardrobe.

Luxury retailers, such as Strathberry will be showcasing the latest arm candy while Odyssey Boutique will be showing off the latest in lingerie. To ensure talons are in tip top shape, The Chamomile Sanctuary therapists will be offering nail treatments.

Gavin MacLennan, General Manager of The Edinburgh Grand which is based in the Capital's St Andrew Square, said: "Boyfriends and girlfriends come and go, but friends are forever, so why not bring them along to this fabulous event and have one of those best nights out?"

"This is our inaugural Palentine's Day event and while we're all romantics at heart, it's time to share some of your love with you BFFS and party with us."
