

Extra race meeting at Musselburgh on Tuesday

Musselburgh Racecourse is staging an extra jumps meeting on Tuesday with the price of an entry ticket at only £10.

The East Lothian course was awarded the additional meeting by the British Horseracing Authority as a result of Storm Ciara which has forced a number of postponements at other UK tracks.

Feature race of the seven card fixture is the Racing Post Go North Finals Weekend Handicap Chase at 3.35pm.

Gates open at 12.30pm and the first race is off at 2pm.

As well as the reduced £10 entry, all children aged under 18 are admitted free.
